

Contributors

Françoise Gorog is Head of the Department of Psychiatry and Director of the Institute of Higher Studies in Psychoanalysis at the Saint-Anne Hospital, Paris. She is also member of the Psychoanalytical School of the Forums of the Lacanian Field and founder of the "Correlates" Association which is an association of philosophy, psychoanalysis and psychiatry.

Flaviu-Victor Câmpean is Lecturer at Babeş-Bolyai University, Cluj-Napoca. He teaches Modern and Contemporary Philosophy and Philosophy of Law. He holds a Ph.D. in Philosophy with a thesis entitled The Melancholy Identity in Søren Kierkegaard. He underwent study trips in Lyon and Copenhagen, He is also a member of the Forum of the Lacanian Field, Romania. His interests and research include Modern and Contemporary Continental Philosophy with an emphasize on the 19th and 20th centuries, Classical and Contemporary Theology, Psychoanalysis, French Phenomenology, Political Philosophy, the Philosophical and Psychoanalytical approaches of Cinema and Literature.

Jean-Pierre Drapier is a hospital practitioner, medical director of C.M.P.P. d'Orly, a.m.e. at the Psychoanalytical School of the Forums of the Lacanian Field. He is also member of the International Commission of the Guarantee and teacher at the Paris College of Psychoanalytical Clinic.

Radu Țurcanu is psychoanalyst and clinical psychologist at Paris. He is also analyst member of the School (AME), supervising and training senior psychoanalyst, director of the School of Psychoanalysis of the Forums of the Lacanian Field (EPFCL), Founding member of the Forum of the Lacanian Field (FCL) – Romania. Radu Țurcanu is the author of numerous articles on psychoanalysis, literature, and art, in French, English, and Romanian and co-editor of the volume “Nu e nebun cine vrea” – Introducere în psihanaliza lacaniană. Teoria și clinica psihozelor (2017).

Cristian Bodea is Scientific Researcher at the Department of Social and Human Sciences, Romanian Academy, Cluj-Napoca. His research focus on contemporary philosophy, phenomenology, embodiment and phenomenology of language. He is interested in the psychoanalytical approach of the unconscious as well. His later book titled „Hiatus. Problema fenomenologică a inconștientului” (Hiatus. The Phenomenological Problem of the Unconscious) tries to make a connection between phenomenology and psychoanalysis in order to expand both the concept of language as well as the one of the unconscious. He is also member of the Centre for Applied Philosophy – Babeş-Bolyai University and of the Forum of the Lacanian Field – Romania.

Radu-Cristian Andreescu is an undergraduate student at Babeş-Bolyai University Cluj-Napoca, Faculty of History and Philosophy, Department of Philosophy.

Daniel Sas has graduated the Faculty of Philosophy, at the University of Bucharest, with a graduate thesis on the concept of anxiety - an interdisciplinary approach.

Cristina Criste has obtained the PhD degree in Philosophy at Babes-Bolyai University Cluj Napoca, with the thesis On the Infinite. Spinoza's theory of the eternity of the mind and Cantor's set theory. She is currently working towards another PhD in mathematics and philosophy in a “cotutelle” program at the University of East Anglia (UK), Department of Mathematics and Paris 1 Pantheon Sorbonne, with a scholarship provided at the present time by the University of East Anglia.